

UK's First Authentic Luxury Designer Bag SPA Launched for Designer Handbag Buyer

Friday, 21 July 2009

Authentic luxury designer bag Spa launched by Delortae Agency. Despite the bleak economy, Delortae Agency's luxury authentic designer bag care product request has hit new records. Delortae Agency is offering a niche luxury designer bag treatment service that offers consumers of high end purchases to care for their items at home -- After hitting a new record high of bag treatments being carried out at their SPA Technician Studio once only graced by their VIP clients, Delortae Agency is offering this service to the public making it the only one of it's kind in the UK -- Delortae Agency's luxury authentic designer bag spa also provide high quality specifically formulated products that are not available in retail stores, this portal helps the users understand authentic luxury bag care basics, which means prolonging the life of purchaser investment.

As the UK's only authentic luxury designer bag and accessory spa. Delortae Agency never slow to recognize a gap in the market, They brought us the first internationally accredited designer authentication service, noticed the UK lagged somewhat behind the rest of the world when it came to luxury bag care and when recently most of the High End designer boutiques withdrew any aftercare assistance in bag cleaning and restoration and nothing in the way of retailing specifically formulated products to care for the delicate skins the luxury bags and accessories are being crafted from at point of sale.

Delortae Agency's authentic luxury designer bag SPA product list contains top sellers such as Luxury Silk Serum, For Handles Only, Apple Leather Care Kit and more. Bag SPA treatment products are in high demand during the current economic recession.

Delortae Agency's Sales & Marketing Director Brendalee Lambert said "We have for sometime offered a restoration service to our VIP clients, but due to demand from the public have now chosen to make this service available to the general public who have an interest in luxury handbag and accessory protection, cleaning, repair and restoration services, and assist the Brand Name Boutiques in re enforcing positive after care to their clients both point-of-sale and ongoing. The recession has not slowed sales of designer products, quite the contrary with one top design house increasing their prices by 25%. Prevention really is better than cure, and the best care starts from point of purchase."

Delortae Agency will provide all designer bag lovers the opportunity to take care of their purchase from point of purchase. To prolong the look, feel and appearance of their investment increasing both the bags life and value; the website is professional and user-friendly with an easy check-out process coming soon. The UK sole distributor of authentic luxury professional hand bag and accessory products.

This online store also provides restoration as well as preventative care products. To get the best authentic bag care solution, this portal helps the users understand bag care basics and the differences between skin types. Consumers will have access to the professional tools of the trade with qualified help and support. The technicians' are assigned and trained to quickly respond to the needs of the clients.

Coming soon, personally selected luxury retailers selling the full MyBagSpa professional product range through Delortae Agency Recommended Appointed Sites. These sites will also host their Luxury Bag SPA clinics, where attendees can learn more about expert use of their purchased products and see how to achieve professional results and gain valuable information, help, advice and guidance on these excellent authentic only luxury bag care product range, the first ever held in the UK.
